Mrs. Alma F. Biggers, Advisor

1966

Dedication

The students of North Carolina College are privileged to have in their midst a great lady. She has been to some, an advisor, to many a counselor and to all a friend. She is a lady whom we may talk with during moments of distress or tell the latest joke during times of gaiety. She is able to put herself in the place of the North Carolina College Student, for she herself, is an Eagle! We, the students of North Carolina College, dedicate the 1966 edition of the EAGLE to you, Mrs. Alma Fitzgerald Biggers, advisor and counselor, with admiration and love.

Mrs. Alma Biggers

"Dear Old N. C. C."

*The sloping hills, the verdant green
The lovely blossoms' beautiful sheen
Surround our college proud and gay,
Where wave our colors Maroon and Gray
What matters it how far we roam,
Our throats will oft return to home,
And our hearts will e'er be true to thee,
Our Alma Mater N.C.C.*

Chorus

*Then Rah! Rah! Rah! For our colors so gay!
Dear Old N.C.C.'s Maroon and Gray
Thy Sons and Daughters will honor thee,
Dear Old N.C.C.*

*You send us forth with hearts of love
So like a blessing from above
And from the path we'll never stray
Our dear Alma Mater Maroon and Gray
We'll work and fight, we'll win our way,
When duty calls we shall obey,
And may we e'er return to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C.*

Life Behind The Gates of Knowledge . . .

We enter the Gates of Knowledge at North Carolina College to gather learning in all fields of Education, Communication, Religion and Recreation.

Through these gates, the unforgettable scenes of the verdant greens are caught and held in the memories of NCC students.

The verdant greens at North Carolina College have come to have a special significance for NCC students just as the beauty of the changing seasons, the sweet magnolias and the tall pines.

This is "Your Life" as you remember all the wonderful times spent at NCC.

NCC is . . . a hurried breakfast in the cafeteria

. . . the innovation of IBM REGISTRATION

. . . a change of seasons

. . . an exchange of words

... refined gentlemen

... horseplaying

... welcoming new students and a gathering of old friends

...sitting on the rail

...an afternoon of music and dancing

...training for tomorrow's leaders

...a beautiful campus and its buildings

...a great big EAGLE flying high

... an ALL-AMERICAN in action

... blooming trees in the spring

... students learning for the future

... meeting celebrities

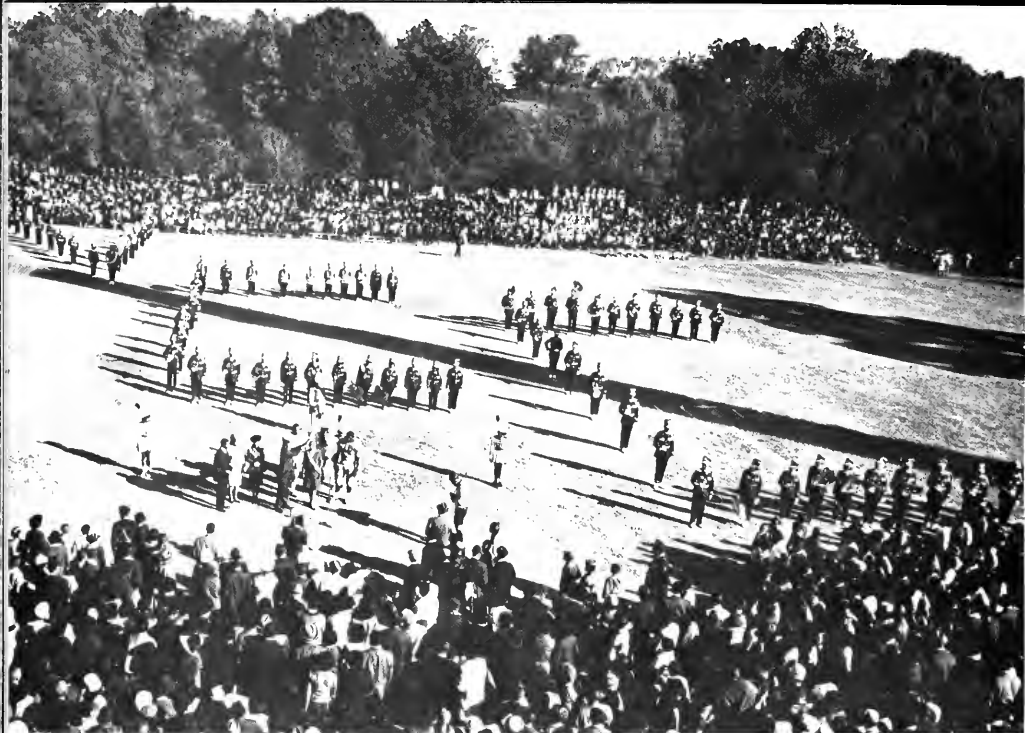

... a session in the canteen

... a rare moment of leisure

... constant construction of new buildings

...its famous Marching Band

...some are studying

...while other are enjoying

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF NORTH CAROLINA COLLEGE

TO STUDENTS, FACULTY, STAFF, ALUMNI, AND FRIENDS OF NORTH CAROLINA COLLEGE:

I am pleased to extend greetings and best wishes to all of you.

We are in the midst of an educational, social, and economic revolution. As men everywhere seek to rid themselves of mankind's three ancient enemies—ignorance, poverty, and disease—education is recognized as the keystone. The plans of our nation's "Great Society" are based largely upon greatly expanded educational opportunities for all peoples as reflected in the Higher Education Act, the Anti-Poverty Bill, the Voting Rights Act, and other historic acts of the 89th Congress.

North Carolina College is in the midst of this great revolution. Everywhere on campus one sees and feels the signs of progress and change, e. g. the new Honor House, revised curricula programs, increased student responsibilities, new Buildings, increased faculty and student activities, newer and more plentiful job opportunities, and increased participation in world affairs.

In participating fully in this revolution, North Carolina College, like other colleges, is maintaining, in addition to excellent facilities and equipment, a competent and creative faculty and staff, inspired students who are eager to learn, loyal alumni, and generous friends.

We invite all of you to join us in our continued quest for academic excellence and achievement.

I congratulate the "EAGLE" staff on this fine yearbook. I wish all of you well.

Sincerely yours,

Samuel P. Massie

Dean Daniel Sampson

To the Members of the 1966 Graduating Class:

I congratulate you for having completed the first step in your quest for a meaningful contribution to the development of our civilization. You must certainly realize that a cornerstone of all progress is education and the aimed product of education is intelligence and understanding. Furthermore, the basic knowledge you have gained at this institution has no doubt convinced you that the occasion of your graduation is truly a commencement, an introduction into the hinterland of multiple problems, issue, and concerns that beset our world. May you go forth with sufficient education and humility to see the potential of good in all of us and the possibility of greatness in our combined efforts, firmly resolved to serve in the pursuit of truth, peace, beauty and world fellowship.

LIBRARY SCIENCE SCHOOL

SCHOOL OF LIBRARY SCIENCE

Dean Evelyn Pope

TO THE STUDENTS OF LIBRARY SCIENCE:

Congratulations on your choice of a career in librarianship. Those of you who are graduating will go forth to join other librarians who are finding much happiness in serving others; those of you who remain to finish your work will continue to add to your knowledge. The field of librarianship has so many sides to it, that you will not have a chance to become bored. If you work in the area of the school library, you may have all of the functions to perform—acquisitions, preparation, circulation, and reference. If you work in a library that has a staff of librarians, you may choose the area of work that suits you best. You may even choose a special type of library.

What ever you do, do the best that you can. Be sure to keep up with the times, so that you are able to be one of the best informed librarians in the field.

May you have great success in the career of librarianship that you have chosen.

DEDICATED TO SOLDIERS IN VIET NAM

Bobby Glenn
(Turkey)

Arnell Jones
(Viet Nam)

Curtis Wilkerson
(Viet Nam)

"Go home killer!" I believe is what they shout.
And while they sit in their frat houses, not knowing or caring what it's all about.
We die in this foreign land while they sit at home and shout.
But they do have it kind of rough, this I must concede.
I know I would be dismayed at one of them trading places with me.
They'll probably ask, "How do we know?" Well, a lot of us have been to college before,
And after we get out of this war we'll probably return once more.
But I guess they think we like it here, that this was our own choice.
But if not for fighting this war we too might be
'college boys'.
I think what they need, and this I say with regret,
is to fight over here with us,
And see their friends in misery and death,
See those who cannot see, the crippled, their bodies shattered by war's device.
Then this might suffice.
So college boys, go ahead and lie in the streets.
Hang on to our trains and ships and if you want,
hang onto Mama's skirt and cry a little bit.
Education is great for those who pick and choose it.
But with all this education, it seems like they would use it.

I don't think anyone wants to see home any worse than us.
College boys, your harrassment we can do without,
your sympathy we don't want.
While we talk of raids, you talk of packing phone booths and the girls you've met.
While we just sweat and die, for your concern

Just picket, scream and yell, and all your draft cards burn.
We do not have wires and phones.
All we have is a faith in God, our prayers, to each his own.
If Uncle Sam should call, just you stick to your pizza and beer.
Do all you can to stay home, because we don't want you over here.
Just one last appropriate saying—I believe it has been used over and over again.
Leave the crying to the babies, and the fighting to the men."

UNITED CAMPUS CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

AN UNDERGRADUATE PRAYS

Our Father, Thou knowest our nature and readeest our innermost thoughts, and nothing can be hidden from Thee; help us, then, to unburden ourselves of every disguise we wear before the world, and find strength in being what we are, Thy humble and grateful children. Enable us to put off sham and pretense. Be patient with any of us who still prefer vain shows and empty pride to the freedom and security of thy Truth.

Enable us to carry from this place peace and strength that here we gained. Because we have talked with Thee here, may we be able to work more patiently for Thy Kingdom, bringing light upon the problems that perplex the world, dispelling the night of doubt and fear with Thy sheltering love.

AMEN.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Charles Daye, President, S. G. A.

As the sun rises, so must it set. As a political figure takes office, so must he vacate it. It has been my honor, my pleasure, and my challenge to ascend to the Presidency, and it is now my task to step down. In some ways it is easy, and in other ways difficult. I have relished every moment that I have had to serve. I only wish that I could have done more.

The quest for excellence is not a single battle. It is a struggle, unending. It is a challenge that must be constantly renewed. It is a victory, never quite won.

These thoughts characterize my feelings, not only about Student Government, but about college and education, and about all that is worth striving for. To you I pass on the torch because I have, for better or worse, run my stretch of this particular journey. Each future generation of Eagles must carry the torch on, and on, and on. . . .

Yours sincerely,

STUDENT COURT

NORTH CAROLINA COLLEGE STUDENT COURT

The North Carolina College Student Court, approved May 13, 1965, has jurisdiction to hear, try, and decide all cases sent to it by the Dean of Students. Presided over by the Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices, the Student Court endeavors to provide student participation in the administering of justice and to promote better relations between the student body and the administration.

CHIEF JUSTICE,

Ida O. Leverette

FROM THE VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE S. G. A.

1965-'66 was designated as the year of the "Great New Era." As presiding officer of the Student Congress and as vice-president of the Student Government Association, I was honored to be an integral part of this era. More than that, I was proud to be a member of the most promising "nest of Eagles" in the history of our institution. You, the student body, made this era great. On your behalf, my highest accolade goes to President Daye.

As the "Great New Era" slowly creeps toward the western skies, we must now prepare for an even greater sunrise in the east, for our finest hour is yet come.

Raymond C. Perry
Vice President

STUDENT CONGRESS

MEN'S STEERING COMMITTEE

EMPTY SHOES TO FILL — Smiling through his problems, James Stevens begins his first year as head football coach at North Carolina College and ponders the task of filling the shoes of 28 players lost due to graduation, academic deficiencies, and other reasons.

Stevens avows to put up a tough fight against all comers. The new coach succeeds Herman H. Riddick, who retired after 20 years.

Stevens and assistants, Quiett, and Johnson have the task of developing a good squad.

INTERIM COMMITTEE

Dr. William H. Brown

Mr. William Jones, Chairman

Dr. Helen G. Edmonds

"The old order changeth, giving place to new."—Kipling

As we go to the publishers we are without a President. We were placed in this situation on January 19, by the resignation of Dr. Samuel P. Massie, as President of North Carolina College. At this time an interim committee was appointed, headed by Mr. William Jones, North Carolina College Business Manager, as chairman. Other members of the committee are Dr. Helen G. Edmonds, dean of the graduate school, and Dr. William H. Brown, professor of education, and former dean of the graduate school.

The job of the interim committee is to perform the duties of the presidency until a new administrator is found. We offer these persons our utmost consideration and cooperation in continued progress in the absence of a president. We are waiting hopefully for the appointment of a person who is student oriented, and who can please the faculty and staff as well. Since in the past the president has been chosen solely by the superiors, maybe in the choice of our fourth president the students will be given some voice, since a president should be mainly for the students.

In this way the ideal of the Student Government Association concerning having someone on the interim committee who works directly with the undergraduate body might be met.

However, if this ideal is not met, in the words of the S. G. A. "We shall continue to cooperate with college authorities and to seek the best interests of the students and the college."

HONOR HOUSE

Madestyne Harrison, Jean Mosely, Earline Gore, Minnie Wilder, Porta Raney, Ann Hayes, Evelyn Keyes, Eula Simms, Barbara

McGill, Gwendolyn Watson. Not Shown: Polly Williston, Ernestine Carter, Betty Cale, Patricia Cherry.

The Honor House, a new facet of N. C. College, has proved to be a successful venture during this school year. The Honor House which houses senior women has given its residents the opportunity to grow morally, scholastically, and socially. We, the residents of the Honor House, hope that this idea of giving women students the opportunity to live under an honor system will continue to grow on our campus.

MARINETTE EXCHANGE PROGRAM

The Marinette Exchange Program is an arrangement whereby two students from the University of Wisconsin's Marinette County Center attend North Carolina College for one semester and two North Carolina College Students attend Marinette for the same length of time.

The Exchange began in September, 1965, with the arrival at NCC of Miss Jane Liljestrand and Miss Patricia Thompson from Marinette. It will continue during the second semester with Miss Mamie Alston and Miss Ferne Thorpe attending Marinette.

It is hoped that this arrangement will be a pilot program for a much larger exchange with the entire Wisconsin system. Plans to expand the program are already being worked out.

Nine Sophomore women applied for the Exchange. (The program was limited to the Sophomore women because of the curriculum and housing conditions at Marinette.) The two finalists were selected by a committee of Faculty and Students.

The students pay the same expenses for tuition and fees as they would pay at their home institution. They pay room and board at the host institution in accordance with the scales prevailing there. Transportation between schools is provided by the home institution. The North Carolina College students are provided transportation by funds from the Doris Duke Foundation.

Dr. Ceecil Patterson is the director of this program.

CORONATION OF MISS N.C.C.

Veronica Tucker

COMMENTATORS: Collins Baber and Collin Bull

North Carolina College instituted for the first time in its history has a radio program "N. C. C. in the News," under the sponsorship of the College News Bureau.

In the words of one eminent staff member, "We, the members of the staff are fully aware that we render vital services in the total success of the Institution. The hundreds of things that we do in the area of secretarial work, maintenance, food services, dormitory counseling, housekeeping services, business office services and other duties involved in the total operation of the college. I wish to state at this time that hardly any form, any list or any classification of duties can actually reveal or portray the many activities we are called upon to perform from time to time, in line with the call of duty and some beyond the call of duty."

We the students of the college want you to know that we appreciate, and are thankful for all of your many services!!!

A LITTLE HELP PLEASE!

The North Carolina College Eagle yearbook is a student publication which is entirely formulated, written, and designed by students. The majority of it is unsalaried. The work is tedious, demanding, and often requires that the members work late hours, even though they have to abide by the same dormitory curfew and carry the same academic load that you do.

Beset by trials and tribulations the Eagle staff is also plagued by a lack of campus cooperation. Many times when the staff sets up schedules for taking pictures of clubs and organizations these groups do not come on time or they fail to appear at all. Then, when their pictures do not appear in the book or there is some error in the name of the club or some club members do not appear with the group the yearbook editors or the advisor is confronted with complaints and criticisms.

Along with this lack of campus cooperation, the Eagle staff is forced to work in an office which is too small to accommodate all of the workers, and lacks adequate storage for the materials.

Without the utmost consideration we cannot give you the type of year book that the staff desires to have published, and that you should like to have. We are soliciting everyone's help!! This publication belongs to North Carolina College, not to thirty or forty members of the staff. A little co-operation would go a long way towards making the staff happier, and more willing to serve the North Carolina College community.
